

WALKER'S STORE.

A Store for Men
And for Women.

Equally good in its character of merchandise for one as the other. So by no means is all the glamour of newness and latest fashion fancies converged within the woman's portion of the Walker Store. The fall and winter suits for men are, in themselves, an inspiration. Prettier fabrics and patterns have not been shown in a decade, and the styles are the kinds becoming to most men. Coats are shaped to the figure, shoulders broad, and trousers somewhat wider than last season. A splendid assortment to choose from—$15.00 to $30.00. In separate trousers we are ready to show a complete collection in an excellent variety of patterns at $3.00 to $7.00. The new percale shirts, too, are in very broad variety of choice colorings and patterns—made by high-class shirt makers; the fit and finish show the expert care with which they have been produced. Then there's an abundance of rich neckwear. Late, new effects interesting to every man who has a new season need. Prices are all most reasonable, as they should be—Walker Store enterprise looks after maximum quality, but ever puts minimum price upon it. Come, see.

As a Handkerchief Store.

We want the Walker Store to be known as a handkerchief store—one to which you may come for any kind, all kinds, but always the very best made the world over at the very smallest prices possible. We have worked for years toward this consummation by importing lavishly, but this season we've gone far beyond anything attempted before; bought in greater quantities, even, to bring prices down to our idea of littleness. As a result, these three lines to tell about:

Women's 35c Handkerchiefs—25c.

Pure linen and very sheer, with pretty initial in the corner, hem-stitched borders, laundered and snowy white. They have always sold in 35c each, but are now chosen for a leader to show what may be had in handkerchief goodness here for—25c.

Women's pure linen handkerchiefs, fine and sheer, fancy little initial in the corner embroidered by hand, borders hemstitched. Beautiful handkerchiefs, now instead of 65c each—50c.

Exquisite all linen handkerchiefs, tiny initial in corner is surrounded by dainty fleur de lis, all hand embroidered—65c.

Rich Waist Trimmings at $2.50 the Piece.

Freshly cut from our new all over trimmings that sell up to $15.00 a yard. Very rich, as you may know from the price; 3/4 to 1/2 yard pieces, sufficient in any to trim a waist, Monday and week, choice of any for—$2.50.

$1.00 Taffeta Silks at 75c.

We are making this a special inducement in taffeta silks for the season. The quality is the regular $1.00 kind, high grade and in a full line of shades. Our price—75c.

$2.75 Golfings—$2.00.

An opportunity to get your rainy-day skirt at a less price than usual. Nine pieces of most excellent golfings, in navy blue, brown, tan, gray and green; $2.75 a yard quality, for—$2.00.

New Waistings at 50c a Yard.

Have you seen the splendid new wool waistings we are showing at 50c a yard. No more delay no longer, they're going very fast. As rich a gathering as any woman could wish to choose from; plain colors and pretty stripes of every width from very tiny thread-like kinds to broad, besides dots and figures of all kinds. Only two and a half yards for a waist.

Persian Cachemires.

Thirty pieces, thirty different kinds of these handsome Persian cachemires that make into most charming; house gowns or kimono; soft, clinging stuffs, a little heavier in weight than challis. $1.00 a yard.

A Good Silk Petticoat at Small Price.

Made of taffeta silk, black only, with accordion dounce, edge finished with full narrow ruching. The silk quality and the making is of a sort usually found in higher priced petticoats. Here at—$7.50.

Women's Flannelette Nightgowns.

Last year we fell short of these cozy, warm nightgowns, not knowing their great popularity. It will not be so this season. There's a very large and complete stock of them here right now, and in prettier styles than heretofore. Best of flannelette grades in plain colors and pink and blue striped, some lace trimmed, others with finishing braids, 50c to $3.50.

New Kid Gloves.

The need of gloves for fall and winter is beginning to assert itself with insistence, so it may not be amiss to remind you that we have the "Reynier"—a glove without a peer or equal; every shade and size now in complete readiness. $2.25 and $2.50. These two lots for clearance this week:

A broken line of Tanne kid gloves—those that wash with soap and water, yet retain their pliability and softness—about three pairs in every size, so not a great many, you see, while they last, instead of $2.00—$1.50.

All our fresh, new rubber gloves, something every housekeeper should possess to protect the hands, this week, instead of $1.25 a pair—$1.00.

"Doris" Is Here

In all sizes, in all toe shapes; welt, hand-turned and extension soles. Calfskin, vici kid, patent vici, enamel kid, dress and street shoes. The $3.50 shoes for women.

Men's Shoes for Which We Are Sole Agents

We are now the exclusive representatives here for the Edwin Clapp shoes for men. The reputation of these shoes is as broad as the United States. Their goodness is unexcelled.

The new lasts for fall and winter are here in patent calf, patent corolla kid, patent ideal kid, vici kid with or without kid lining, and box calf. A fresh, beautiful lot of shoes, $5.50 to $7.00.

Our $3.50 shoes for men. A fine make we have selected as a leader, we expect to bear witness in all Utah, of the remarkable goodness and splendid economies offered here in the way of men's shoes. The man who thinks he must buy shoes at $4.00 and $4.50 will find the same quality, the same leathers and lasts in these, our $3.50 shoes. Make comparison for yourself.

Smart and Becoming Jackets.

Fashion has certainly vouchsafed the privilege to every woman this season—in the matter of jackets, at least—of having a garment entirely suitable to her figure and idea of becomingness, for here are long, medium, and short coats in box, half box, tight fitting and last, but not by any means the least desirable, those patterned very much after a man's Prince Albert—the Louis XVI; each and every one equally fashionable and up-to-date. Black, marine blue, bright blue, navy blue, red, castor, light and dark tans, different shades of gray and brown. A splendid stock in which any woman can be pleased. $4.95 to $125.00.

New Flannel Waists.

The real beauties for this season show tucks, buttons, plaits for trimming, yet there are many effective styles in the fancy fabrics, either of domestic make or the real French flannel in figures, dots and stripes. All white kinds and old rose, green, lavender, red, black, tan and other shades, 85c to $7.50.

Women's Tailor Suits and Dresses.

Experts in fashion matters thought they had reached the zenith of artistic production when the man-tailored gown came to the fore. But the feminine would assert itself over the masculine, and now the tailor-made and the dress-maker made. Strictly speaking, the tailor suits are the more severe styles with jacket and essentially for the street; they are shown this season in handsome men's suiting cloths. The dresses seek effectiveness in trimming. Zibelines, serges, vicuna, camel hair and other fabrics with braid, silk, velvet and other adornment. $65.00 to $150.00. In separate skirts, the variety of kinds seems almost unlimited, and certainly in the matter of selection, makers placed no restriction upon kind of materials to be used. Elegant silks and velvets are shown in addition to the many handsome weaves in cloths. Beautiful kinds for calling or reception and for street wear. Silks $9.75 to $75.00. Cloth $4.95 to $45.00.

Fur Neck Scarfs and Collarettes.

We don't believe you can find the match for these neck pieces, either in quality, style or price littleness outside this store. So advantageously we buy this season. The scarfs are in all the new shapes, long and short, some with many tails, others with few and smaller, to admit of variety for becomingness. Marten, sable fox, beaver, electric seal, etc. From $1.95 to $85.00.

The collarette styles are quite as effective and handsome as the scarfs and the variety of kinds here just as broad. Made of electric seal, beaver, sable fox, Persian lamb, marten and fur combinations; long and short fronts, tails; beautifully lined with rich silks. $2.95 to $150.00.

New Knit Undergarments and Hosiery.

A very large stock of the very best knit garments and hosiery, whether you buy of the higher priced sorts or the very little. The spurious is rigidly excluded here, but through expert purchasing we are enabled to give the good and true at no higher price than poorer kinds. The following to illustrate:

Women's gray wool vests and drawers, soft, nicely woven and finished, each—75c.

Women's fleeced cream cotton vests and drawers, extra quality, each—50c.

Women's gray fleeced cotton vests and drawers, heavy for winter, each—25c.

Boys' gray fleeced cotton shirts and drawers, and girls' pantelettes at 15c, 20c, 25c and 35c each.

Women's real Maco black cotton hose, fine gauge and heavy weight, pair—60c.

Women's heavy weight black cotton hose, fine gauge, pair—75c.

Children's black cotton hose with double legs, three pairs for $1.00.

Stamped Linen Pieces, Cushion Tops and Photo Frames.

Linen lawn center piece, 18 and 20 inch squares, stamped with various pretty designs, only a small lot reduced from 65c, 75c, 85c, and each to—25c.

Stamped linen lawn doilies, 15 inch squares, stamped with various pretty designs, only a small lot reduced from 65c, 75c, 85c, and each to—25c.

Hemstitched and broderie anglaise, 6 inch squares, stamped with various pretty designs, only a small lot reduced from 65c, 75c, 85c, and each to—25c.

Canvas ground with stamped designs, only a small lot reduced from 65c, 75c, 85c, and each to—25c.

The programme was unusually interesting, the day being devoted to Indiana authors.

Mrs. Beesley's subject was "James Whitcomb Riley."

Mrs. Thurman read a well written paper on "Maurice Thompson," the author of "Alice of Old Vincennes."

Miss Isely read a chapter from "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," and gave a sketch of the author, Edward Eggleston. She also read an article on Mrs. Lew Wallace and her work.

Mrs. Searle's subject was "Booth Tarkington."

Mrs. Schwab reviewed current literature.

Quotations from Indiana authors proved a pleasant feature of the afternoon.

Serious held the first meeting of the year Wednesday, Oct. 2, at the home of Mrs. King.

A short address of welcome was given by the president, Mrs. Beck. The following was the programme for the day: "Women at the English Universities," Ida L. Allen; "Student Life at Oxford," Beulah Bachman; "Public Schools in England," Estia Bagley; "English Clubs," Cordelia Beck.

The resignation of Mrs. Bagley was accepted. Other business of the club dispatched, club adjourned for one week to meet with Mrs. Beck.

"Doris" Has Arrived. Our $3.50 shoes for women. Walker's Store.

MUST FOLLOW AMERICA.

English System of Railroaded Is Proving Financial Failure.

London, Oct. 5.—The opinion of Charles T. Yerkes regarding English railways is that they must be taken in hand by Americans and worked in their way, or else they will be laid down under the enormous capitalization and wasteful methods. A mass of tables issued by the government this week on railways in the United Kingdom in 1900 is mighty unpleasant reading for the shareholders, showing increasing working expenses, out of all proportion with the increase in receipts.

Of the total paid up capital of £1,176,000,000, 16 per cent, or £187,000,000 is due to nominal additions on consolidation, conversion and division of stocks. The average rate of dividend is only 3.45 per cent as against 3.67 per cent in 1899.

It is the realization of these shortcomings which has induced the department for New York of several prominent officials of the Northeastern Railway company, including George Gibb, the general manager, and Mr. Burt, the traffic manager, who sailed on the White Star line steamer Celtic yesterday, the object of their trip being a month's study of the American railroad system.

Editor Missing.

New York, Oct. 5.—The Herald says: The Rev. William M. Coe, assistant pastor of the Madison Square Presbyterian church, has asked the police to send out a general alarm for Luther S. Bedford. He said that Mr. Bedford, who is an editor from Texas, was to have called at the home of the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, but failed to keep his appointment.

Protest From Kruger.

Brussels, Oct. 5.—Le Petit Bleu asserts that Mr. Kruger has sent to President Roosevelt a protest against the exportation of horses and mules to South Africa.

A Dark and Muddy Complexion.

Does not become a neat woman. Lane's Tea will cure constipation, clear up the skin, sharpen the appetite and make you look and feel like a new person. It acts gently upon the stomach, liver and bowels. For sale by Godde-Pitts Drug company.

The Woman's Club.

"Across Russia" was the subject of a most interesting address delivered by Dr. Paden before the Woman's club on Tuesday afternoon. He gave a graphic description of his travels through the Slavic country, the customs of the people at the present day and the abject misery and superstition which pervades the lower classes. He spoke of the life of Peter the Great, the magnificence of his palaces and his wonderful influence on modern Russia, and praised the character of Alexander the Second, who was outspoken in his friendship and regard for America during his war of the rebellion. The city of St. Petersburg, the winter palace of the czar, with its galleries and museums, the splendor of the royal palace of the Kremlin in Moscow and the gorgeous beauty of the church of the Saviour, built in memory of the defeat of the army of Napoleon, its interior furnished with precious stones, while the ceilings and walls are covered with costly paintings and mosaics, were all depicted in glowing language. Though the greatest magnificence and the utmost splendor and ignorance form a striking contrast in the life of the Russians, Dr. Paden expressed his faith in the future of the people and the characteristic strength which will gradually work out their evolution to civilization and enlightenment.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. H. B. Kimball will give "Historic Cities."

Reviewers' Club.

Reviewers' club reassembled on Monday afternoon for the year's work. It was an open day, and the meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wightman, was enjoyed by a large number of guests besides the members of the club. The programme was opened with a vocal selection from "Mignon" by Miss Damon. She also sang "The Four-leaved Clover" in response to an encore. Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, in her inaugural address, expressed in a few beautiful words her appreciation of the office which had devolved upon her and her desire to show by her future work as the president her heartfelt interest in the growth and advancement of the club. She made a special plea for loyalty from its members and freedom from the spirit of criticism.

The topic of the afternoon, "Stephen Phillips, the Poet," was given by Mrs. F. C. Kelsey. She read selections from "Marpessa" and the tragedy, "Hercules," also "The Woman With the Dead Soul," from among the poet's shorter poems. Mrs. F. D. Bickford, chairman of the state association of the Federation of Women's clubs, urged the presentation of one topic a year on the industrial problem as it affects women, and the retiring officers referred to the programme committee.

Tess and cake were served at the close of the programme. On Oct. 14 the club will be entertained on Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. T. Sanford. Miss Preston was chairman. Mrs. W. H. Dale gave the biography of the poet, Bayard Taylor. An account of the poet's journal was read by Mrs. Hemphill. The table decorations were sunflowers and nasturtiums. Small blotting books, their covers adorned with the sunflower, the club emblem, and tied with green and yellow ribbons formed very pretty souvenirs for the occasion. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Spencer, with Mrs. J. L. Rawlins in the chair.

Cleofan.

An interesting meeting of the Cleofan took place on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. A. Culmer. After the reports of the retiring officers an excellent paper was read by Mrs. H. S. Young, on "Domestic Science."

Utah Woman's Press Club.

The Utah Woman's Press club held its first meeting of the year on Monday evening at the office of the Woman's Exponent. In response to roll call original sentiments were given by the members. A short business session followed, at which Mrs. Rebecca H. Jones was elected delegate to the Federation of Women's clubs. McKivier, chairman of the educational committee of the State federation, asked for a full report of the work accomplished by the educational committee of the Woman's Press club from the time of its appointment. The programme consisted of a paper on the life of William McKinley, by Mrs. McKivier, and an entertaining account from Mrs. Lydia D. Alder of her experiences abroad and particularly in London.

Ladies' Literary Club.

At the Ladies' Literary club on Friday afternoon Mrs. Hutchingson will present the subject "One Standard of Morals." Readings from Sidney Lanier will be given by Mrs. Rogers. The literary programme consists of at instrumental selection by Miss Flora Jones and two vocal numbers by Mrs. Percy Somers-Cocks.

The Tourist section will meet at the "Hubhouse" on Monday at 10 a. m. The topics will be "Luther and the Reformation," by Mrs. Miller, and "Many Singers and Master Singers," by Mrs. Henderson.

The French section meets on Tuesday morning, Oct. 8, at 10 o'clock. The subject will be "Some of the Suburbs of Paris."

The History section meets at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. Mrs. Boxrud will give a paper on the Carolingian dynasty. Subjects for one-minute talks are Godfrey of Bouillon and Abelard.

Needlework Guild.

The officers and members of the Needlework guild of this city are kindly reminded that the annual collection of garments should be made by the 25th of this month. It is hoped that the presidents of the sections have consulted with their directors and have planned if possible for sections as sections to make contributions along some particular line. This will simplify the distribution very much, as donations will be sent to societies and institutions in the city, which will in turn relieve the guild of the burden of individual distribution.

As the Young Ladies' Aid society is no longer with us to help meet the demands which inevitably come with the winter season, every member of the guild is most earnestly urged to send donations more generously and promptly than ever before.

New articles only are accepted by the guild and a donation of two articles minimum fee accomplishing a maximum amount of good. Everything for men, woman or child—sheets, blankets, etc. will be gratefully accepted. If there are any stray members or happily some new ones, in doubt where to send articles they are advised that donations will be gladly received by Mrs. E. B. Critchlow, 30 Seventh East street, or by Mrs. W. A. Nelden, 1172 East First South street.

S. O. S. NELDEN, President.

CLUB NOTES.

The Parliamentary club will hold its first meeting Thursday afternoon, Oct. 4, at the home of Mrs. Alice Merrill. There will be a brief review of the work done last year. Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Ganz are requested to present motions for the drill.

On Saturday afternoon the Daughters of the Revolution celebrate Columbus day at the home of Mrs. Alice Merrill.

The Woman's Republican club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Joseph Young, 549 East First South street, tomorrow afternoon. After the transaction of business a delightful musical and social time is promised.

The ladies of the College club entertained at the home of Mrs. Goddard, 443 East First South street, on Thursday evening. Miss Peterson gave a talk on Westminster Abbey and the English Cathedral.

The Daughters of the American Revolution meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Fisher, 151 East Second South street. Mrs. M. A. Breiden has charge of the programme.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Democratic club will be held Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Abbott, corner of Second South and Second West streets.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden has many ardent supporters for the presidency of the State Federation of Women's clubs. It is anticipated that she will receive a hearty endorsement from the Salt Lake club.

The Council of Jewish Women will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, the 9th inst., at 2 p. m., at 23 B. B. lodge rooms. As this is an important meeting all members are requested to present.

It is stated that Provo would be satisfied in winning the vice presidency election in the State Federation. She is not working for the higher office.

OGDEN CLUBS.

Tuesday last La Coterie was entertained in the bright, cheery home of Mrs. Perkins. The afternoon was devoted to art, introduced by Mrs. Abbott with a paper on "Sir Frederick Leighton, and the Royal Academy of London." Beginning with the old Greek garden where Plato taught, Mrs. Abbott gave a brief history of the growth of academies up to the present London academy with Sir Joshua Reynolds, the fashionable portrait painter of his time, who was a native of Ogden. A special feature of her paper was a description of the magnificent work of Sir Edwin Landseer. The paper was supplemented with copies from many of the most famous pictures and created a lively discussion. Altogether this was one of the most enjoyable and instructive afternoon La Coterie has ever enjoyed.

Mrs. Emerson submitted photographs of the figures in bronze and in marble by Sir Edwin Landseer, whose works are claiming such wide renown. A thought that perhaps the literary clubs of Ogden would unite in buying one piece of the public library was expressed, into definite action soon. "On the Border of the Whiteman's Land" seemed to be the favorite.

After refreshments, the club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Miss Kisel.

PROVO CLUBS.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Havercamp. Mrs. Beasley, the vice president, presiding.

The Tourist section will meet at the "Hubhouse" on Monday at 10 a. m. The
